Han Li posted:

I always remembered my time staying at uncle's house in Shuzhou. I was around 6 probably. When I got in trouble messing up a neighbor's garden, the neighbor reported me angrily to uncle. Uncle did not scold me but only gently talked to me about it. That memory always stays with me as long as I live. Uncle is patient and gentle. His spirit will always be with us all until we get to see him again in Heaven. May God bless his soul and rest in heavenly peace. Lovingly, Han Li
