Damask, Robert Theodore

JUL 23, 1938 - MAR 27, 2025

Robert Theodore Damask, better known as R. Ted, Mr. Ted, and Uncle Bear passed away on March 27, 2025. He was 87. Born on July 23, 1938 to Theodore and Isabella Damask, he was the oldest of 3 boys. The family moved to Palo Alto, CA in 1948 from Omaha, NE.

He lived a good life beginning with early achievements to an Eagle Scout, playing Trombone and various Horns in the Palo Alto High School Band. He studied Engineering at Swarthmore and Cal Poly Colleges working as a salesman in small business marine industries. His passion for sailing and vessels, real estate, financial markets and the arts brought him a variety of wonderful friends, deeply insightful conversations and playful banter over his life time.

He was a wordsmith, making unusual word associations to the delight of those around him, keeping peoples' interest wherever he went. In his adult life he lived in Santa Clara, Napa, Sonoma and Solano Counties. He is survived by two brothers, 4 sister's in law, and a handful of nieces and nephews in both blood and kin family fashion, he was loved. A devoted man to the principles of his early Methodist upbringing, we know he is in a better place.

Kim Smith lit a candle in honor of Robert.

Dinner party we hosted at his Mom's house one evening. Theo insisted on preparing all the food so imagine my shock when the menu was 2 packages of Ramen noodles for 4 people with celery sticks and cheese as appetizers. I was embarrassed but we pulled off the evening with grace and laughter. I slipped our guests some money to stop for fast food on their way home!! I will always love Theo...I hope he knew that. Not too many days go by that I don't think of him and our daughter, Sarah, who will finally meet in heaven.
