Yau Lok Lam

MAR 24, 1937 - NOV 2, 2025

In Memory of Yau Lok Lam

March 24th, 1937 – November 2nd, 2025

Morning light feels softer as we remember Yau Lok Lam, born in China on March 24th, 1937. She found comfort in open skies, outdoor activities, and the bright notes of Chinese opera.

Her days turned around nature walks, thoughtful cooking, and steady work. Those near her knew she was patient, hardworking, resilient, and kind.

The family dinner table carried many of her quiet stories. Those meals stay with her children Chun Lam, Joanne Ho, Tina Lui, and Miu Kuen Lam.

Her path was once shared with her late husband, Ching Chuen Lam, whose memory she held close. In each simple dish she prepared, their shared years echoed.

On November 2nd, 2025, in San Francisco, California, her journey reached its close. The calm strength she carried now rests in the memories of those who walked beside her.

We will sense her spirit whenever clear air meets distant music. Each fresh breeze will recall her balance of patience and resolve.

Memories only last if you share them
