PHYLLIS MARIE SYMONDS

MAY 7, 1951 - DEC 16, 2025

Phyllis Marie Symonds (née Lopez) was born on May 7, 1951, to Ofilio Lopez and Mary Mercedes Gutierrez in San Francisco. She was the third of 5 children. Phyllis was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, aunt, cousin, grandmother, and friend. Phyllis passed away peacefully on December 16, 2025.

She is survived by her brother, Mike; her 3 children - Margo (partner: Sonja), David (spouse: Marjorie), and Jessica; and, her 5 grandchildren - Jordan, Joshua, Gabriel, Jeremiah, and MiaBella. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and 3 of her siblings - Mary (Terri), Eloy Butch, and John.

Phyllis met her soon-to-be husband, Robert (Bob), on a radio love connection show, while she was in high school. They were married 3 years later "On Air" at the KYA radio station. In 2014, she lost her husband to cancer. She found comfort in spending time with her grandchildren, painting, playing BINGO, watching old game shows, doing Duolingo, and getting mani-pedis. She loved the Giants, The Beatles, and John Travolta. Relationships were also very important to Phyllis. She treasured her lifelong friendships with her childhood friends - Rosie, Josi, and Carolyn - and imagined taking a cruise with them one day. She even enjoyed meeting and getting to know her clients at work. But, through it all, her absolute favorite thing to do was to spend time with her family. Her spirit was very much alive, but her body could not keep up. Her last days were spent surrounded by family, and they are happy knowing that she is finally reunited with her one true love, Bob
