Patrica Lorraine Martinelli

MAY 31, 1954 - JAN 20, 2026

Patricia Lorraine Martinelli passed away on January 20th, 2026 in Redwood City, CA at the age of 71. Patty was born on May 31st, 1954 in Inglewood, California to parents George and Bette Cooney. Patty's Irish twin sister, Pamela, was born 11 months earlier. The family moved to Costa Mesa when Patty was 2 to a brand new tract house surrounded by orange groves where the girls would play with neighborhood friends for hours. Patty and Pam were best friends growing up and created plays with kids on the block, selling tickets and candy with Patty always manning the cash register. Every holiday their mother dressed them alike in holiday dresses. At age 18 Patty moved to Oahu, Hawaii and studied emergency medical tech training at Queens Medical Center. She would later become a flight attendant for United Airlines based out of San Francisco, California, from which she traveled the world.

Patty married Jack Martinelli in 1988 and they purchased a home in San Mateo, California. They traveled to New Zealand, Portugal, and traveled through Europe with Jack's family. They raised two children, Jack, 29 lives in Belmont, CA and Sean, 27, lives in San Mateo. The family had many memorable vacations to Washington DC, Twain Harte, CA and Kauai. Patty had a lifelong passion for gardening and knew the names of every plant and tree. She had a green thumb and helped friends and neighbors design beautiful gardens for their homes. She made bouquets of flowers every week which she delivered to Sean's high school and the police station.

Patty was kindhearted and compassionate, and had many friends and family who dearly loved her, and she them. She enjoyed every minute of being a loving and supportive mom for her boys.
