Raymond Cheuk-Kit Chau

DEC 15, 1951 - FEB 22, 2026

Raymond Cheuk-Kit Chau, a devoted husband, loving father, and cherished member of the Belmont community, passed away peacefully at his home on February 22, 2026, at the age of 74. Born on December 15, 1951, in Hong Kong, Raymond built a life marked by dedication, humility, and deep commitment to his family.

Raymond married his beloved wife, Pauline Chau, with whom he shared a lifetime of partnership, support, and love. Together they raised their children, Brandon, Audrey, and Collin who were the center of his world. Raymond took great pride in his family and found joy in the simple, meaningful moments they shared.

A man of steadfast work ethic and loyalty, Raymond spent 38 years as an accountant with Hewlett-Packard (HP).

Raymond's legacy lives on in the hearts of his family, friends, and all who were fortunate enough to know him. He will be remembered for his warmth, his generosity, and the steady, loving presence he brought into the lives of others.

He is survived by his wife, Pauline; his children, Audrey and Brandon; and extended family who will forever hold his memory close.

So very sorry to hear of Ray's passing. He was a remarkable man of great character; a real pleasure to have gotten to know him professionally and personally. My deepest condolences to Pauline and to Ray's children. He was so proud and always spoke such fond words of all of you. Rest In Peace, Ray. You will be missed.

When I got sick with my cancer, Ray set up a weekly meeting with me and we talked. He helped me through that and also was unselfish in other ways. I wish he was still here.
