“ Growing up I always admired and looked up to Dave. He was a great example to me. I love Dave and the entire Hopkins family. My thoughts, love and prayers are with them at this sad and emotional time.
May God's kindest and most comforting blessings be with them.

“ Hello to the Hopkins Family. This is Roger Campbell and our family loves the Hopkins Family. We met when our family moved to Half Moon Bay, California about 1974. Dad and Mother Hopkins and their children and ours became friends. As we recall, David (Dave) was serving as a missionary in Peru and we learned of him and became friends when he returned. We were saddened to learn of Dave's passing - but knowing our Heavenly Father's plan for his children, we will have the opportunity to see and visit with him again. Our love to the Hopkins family at a time when Dave passing brings sadness but also it gives us a time to reflect on his life and we hope to follow his example of kindness and love to others. May the Lord bless each of you at this time. The Roger Campbell Family
