Lam Phu of Wenchang, Hai Nam, passed away suddenly but peacefully on 1/28/2021 at his residence in San Francisco of natural causes.

He was born to father Dung Trach Phu of Wenchang, Hai Nam and mother Phuong Tran, in Ninh Hoa, Vietnam on 7/13/1937. He owned the New Vietnam Theater in Vietnam. He was married to Dung Thuc Tang of Phan Thiet in 1966. They had 5 beautiful children, 2 daughters and 3 sons.

In 1982, his sister Qui Thuc Phu and brother-in-law sponsored his family to immigrate to the U.S. After living in Southern California briefly, Lam moved his family to San Francisco. He worked as manager of Four Star Theater in the Richmond District for many years. Light-hearted and happy, he befriended people everywhere he went and was well loved and respected by family and friends all over the world, in the U.S., China, his hometown of Hai Nam, Vietnam, Australia, Europe and Canada.

In San Francisco, he actively served as senior consultant, head of scholarship committee, and Vice President of Hai Nam Association of Northern California (from 1994-1996).

Lam is well remembered by his family and friends as a down-to-earth, easy-going, generous man, with a great sense of humor and adventurous spirit. All who knew him remember him as always happy, smiling, and laughing.

He loved traveling, enjoying tasty food in the company of family and friends, fishing, gardening, collecting antiques, practicing Qi Gong, exercising at YMCA, cooking, and seeing his friends far and near. Everywhere he went, he brought happiness and laughter to people around him.

A loving father, he was always there for his children when we needed him. He attended his grandchildren's birthday parties, graduation, and music performances whenever he could. His loving presence and happy spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew him, especially by his family, children, and grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife Dung Thuc Tang, daughters Manyu Quach, Mimi Ha, and sons Thomas Phu, Johnathan Phu, and Phan Phu, as well as eight grandchildren, whom he adored: Erica Quach, Derek Quach, Megan Ha, Aidan Phu, Brandon Phu, Sophie Phu, Dylan Phu, and Ansel Phu.

Lam Phu's funeral service will be held at Skylawn Memorial Park on Wednesday, 2/10/2021 from 9:30-11:30. All family and friends are invited to attend via Zoom. We will send out a link before the event. Thank you for your love and support in sending him off to new adventures ahead.

“ My father brought so much joy to his family and friends. Our kids were lucky to be close to him while growing up. He was there for their birthdays, graduations, music performances, and all the special holidays like Chinese New Year, Mid-Autumn festival, Christmas, and all of those times became happy memories. The kids loved going to Dim Sum with Yieyie. He always had little toys for them. We have fond memories of traveling to Thailand with him for my brother-in-law Johnathan's wedding. We visited the Bangkok Zoo with Yieyie and the kids remember feeding giant catfish in a pond with loaves of bread. Another favorite memory of mine was playing the Wii fit as a family when we went to Mammoth for a family reunion when Auntie May and Uncle Johnathan were both there. Dad showed off his meditation skills on the balance board. He sat a long time without the candle going out! In reality, he did live life to the fullest to a ripe old age. Of course we thought Dad would live to be a hundred, so strong an Ox was he.

Though we'll miss seeing Yieyie in person for the children's future birthdays and graduations, I know that he will always watch over us with a smile on his face.

A lighthearted and witty man, Dad never hesitated to crack a joke at his own expense. Such a humble person's great presence became poignantly memorable after his passing.

His gentle yet all-purveying love brings us peace amidst deep sense of loss.

May he return to Buddha's Pureland and continue to shine his light and love upon us.

We'll take Yieyie to Dim Sum and Vietnam in our hearts after Covid is over!

With utmost gratitude and love,

Phan and Li
