“ To Sunil, Meenu & Tara; I share the deepest of sympathies and condolences on the loss of your son & brother. Neal was a bright, caring, ever funny, incredibly sharp, witty, and to me, a very great friend over a number of years. His natural love of Jazz and the trumpet were unmistakable to most who had ever had even the shortest interaction with him. His ability as a gifted storyteller and a great conversationalist never left too many boring moments, instead his presence helped to always spur and foster wonderfully rich dialogues into whatever subject we'd broach. I will forever remember the years of friendship we shared over the past twenty years or so... Neal is truly missed.

“ To Neil's parents, our hearts go out to you as you grieve your beautiful son. We know all too well as we experienced the loss of our own son at exactly the same age. If we can do anything to ease your grief, please contact us.

Neil came over one day last year. He was full of energy and with tons of personality. We liked him a lot and enjoyed talking to him. He talked about his music and the future he planned on returning NYC.

My husband wanted to meet up with neil in NYC at one of his clubs. Neil was a good friend to our son, Brian. Sincere condolences, diana, david, and Brian beatson
