

Nymfa Ortiz Paraso

February 26, 1933 - December 6, 2020

On Sunday, December 6, 2020, Nymfa Ortiz Paraso, loving wife, mother of three children, and grandmother/great-grandmother of nine passed away at the age of 87.

Nymfa was born on February 26, 1933 in Gerona Tarlac, Philippines to Buenaventura and Carolina Ortiz . She received her nursing degree, and she practiced as a registered nurse for a number of years. On, November 6,1958 she married the love of her life and eternal companion Amor Paraso. They had three children, Leah, Ariel and Adorabelle.

Nymfa had a passion for music. She also loved to cook for friends and family. She used her two hobbies to selflessly bless and create extraordinary memories for many. She would sing with her husband to anything and anyone. Together they starred in many choirs. Nymfa loved singing for her family. You could always find her singing the lyrics of “You Are My Sunshine”. She was a dedicated nurse and carried that caregiver spirit to all aspects of her life. She was known for her enormous capacity to love, her infectious smile, her testimony of her savior and her kind and compassionate spirit.

Nymfa is survived by her two children, Ariel and Adorabelle; her siblings Erlin, Romeo, and Eddie; her grandchildren, Nicko, Devon, Cody, Raven, Max and Sabrina; as well as her great-grandchildren, Wyatt, Walker and Ava.

Nymfa Paraso will be laid to rest with the love of her life in California. Again, with COVID restrictions we will not be having traditional services, there will be a graveside service with social distancing. This is located at Skylawn Funeral Home in San Mateo, CA on December 28 starting at noon. Please wear your mask to graveside services.

Cemetery

---

Events

---

Skylawn Memorial Park

Hwy 92 at Skyline
Blvd.
San Mateo, CA,
94402

DEC 28

Graveside Service

12:00PM - 01:00PM

---

Lifemark Center at Skylawn Memorial Park

Lifemark Center at Skylawn Memorial Park, San Mateo, CA,
US, 94402